Ann Wolgers appointed as new Press Officer at Saab

Defence and Security company Saab has appointed Ann Wolgers as the new Press Officer. She takes up her position on May 2.

Ann Wolgers was most recently employed at the Swedish Prime Minister's Office where she had been Media Strategist to the Prime Minister Stefan Löfven.

Ann Wolgers has previously worked as press secretary to the Swedish Minister for Enterprise and Innovation, Mikael Damberg. Ann Wolgers has also worked for the United Nations in East Timor, the OSCE in Albania and Women's Empowerment Projects in Kosovo.

"Saab is one of the world's greatest defence and security companies with more than 12 000 employees in Sweden and over 15 000 worldwide. Saab is a company in the front line regarding both engineering and innovation as well as gender equality. I look forward to lead Saab's Press Centre", says Ann Wolgers, Press Officer at Saab.

As Press Officer Ann Wolgers will lead the team at Saab Press Center consisting of five Media Relation Managers in Stockholm, Linköping and London. Johan Öberg started on April 25 and Petter Larsson will start on May 15. Both Johan Öberg and Petter Larsson are based in Stockholm as well as Helena Dahlberg. Marie Karlsson is based in Linköping and Conal Walker in London.
