Anna Wijkander appointed new CFO of Saab

Saab has today announced that Anna Wijkander, currently Deputy CFO and Head of Corporate Control at Saab, will become the company's new CFO and a new member of Saab's Group Management. This follows Saab's announcement on 4 April 2024 that the current CFO and deputy CEO, Christian Luiga, has decided to leave the company.

Anna has been working at Saab since 2015. Her previous experience includes many years at Ericsson in several managerial finance positions.

"Anna Wijkander has solid experience and the right skillset. I am confident that she will do a great job in supporting our growth journey and continuing to develop our financial function," says Saab's President and CEO Micael Johansson.

Anna Wijkander assumes the position as of 9 September 2024.

Saab is a leading defence and security company with an enduring mission, to help nations keep their people and society safe.
