

Press release 29 January 2025

Jonas Hjelm to leave the Saab Group Management team

Jonas Hjelm, currently Senior Vice President and Head of Government Affairs, will leave his position and the Group Management team to become Senior Advisor at Saab.

The Government Affairs function will be headed by Per de la Gardie, currently Head of Government Affairs Sweden at Saab, as interim until a permanent replacement has been appointed. The function will report to Anders Carp, Deputy CEO, and this change will take effect on 29 January 2025.

“I would like to thank Jonas for his strong contributions to Saab’s Group Management over several years and look forward to continuing to work with him in his new role,” says Micael Johansson, President and CEO of Saab.

Saab is a leading defence and security company with an enduring mission, to help nations keep their people and society safe. Empowered by its 24,000 talented people, Saab constantly pushes the boundaries of technology to create a safer and more sustainable world. Saab designs, manufactures and maintains advanced systems in aeronautics, weapons, command and control, sensors and underwater systems. Saab is headquartered in Sweden. It has major operations all over the world and is part of the domestic defence capability of several nations.
